

PERSON SPECIFICATION

GROUP – ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES

DIVISION – PUBLIC HEALTH AND PROTECTION

JOB TITLE – STUDENT ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH OFFICER

	Essential	Desirable
Knowledge/ Qualifications	To have successfully completed the 1 st year of study of a BSc (Hons) Degree in Environmental Health at a CIEH accredited University, and to be currently enrolled on the 2 nd year of study; OR To be in the final year or have completed a BSc / MSc Degree in Environmental Health at a University accredited University.
Experience
This will be measured by the following methods		CV	O	I
Competencies (8 max)	1- 2 indicators per competencies
Focusing on our Communities	Must demonstrate a willingness to learn & share their own knowledge and skills with others.	X		X
Delivering Results	Should have the ability to produce high quality work & show initiative in overcoming problems.	X		X
Working effectively in teams & partnerships	Contribute to a positive team spirit, recognise and use the expertise of others & build positive relationships with others.	X		X
Communicating effectively	Should communicate well (both orally and in writing).	X		X
Planning, prioritising & monitoring progress	Should have the ability to work to deadlines, and to monitor and review own progress.	X		X

Key:-

CV – Curriculum Vitae

O – Presentation, desk top exercise, written, typing

I – Interview